Docket No. RM2020-9

NOTICE OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE REGARDING PARTICIPATION IN VIDEO TECHNICAL CONFERENCE
(September 14, 2020)

Order No. 5586 (July 13, 2020) directs the Postal Service to attend a video technical conference on September 29, and specifically requests that the Postal Service (and UPS) make a presentation on the matters at issue and participate in subsequent discussion. Order No. 5586 at 4-5. The Order further requires submission of a notice regarding the individuals who are expected to participate. Id. at 4. The Postal Service's presentation will be made by Professor Michael D. Bradley of George Washington University, and he will thus serve as the primary point of contact during the technical conference.

NAME: Michael Bradley
EMAIL: Michael.Bradley.123@verizon.net

Two other postal representatives will potentially participate in the discussion:

NAME: John Kelley, Manager of Cost Attribution
EMAIL: john.p.kelley@usps.gov

NAME: Eric Koetting, Attorney
EMAIL: eric.p.koetting@usps.gov

While naturally many other postal personnel have expressed interest to be informed regarding the technical conference, given the online format, there seems to be no advantage to them attending the live version, versus instead viewing the recording of the conference that Order No. 5586 indicates at page 6 will subsequently be posted on the Commission's website.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
